

Tour to Blue Nile Gorge, Debre Libanos and Portuguese Bridge

Duration: 1 day

Way of transportation: Surface

Program:

Early morning, head to the Blue Nile Gorge and drive down the 1,000m long winding gorge enjoying the expansive views over terraced slopes and euphorbia-studded cliffs to the opposite wall. Park the car near the new bridge where there are guards and walk to the old bridge built by Emperor Haile Selassie for a superb view of the river and the surrounding hills. On the way back to Addis have lunch at Ethio German Park Hotel Restaurant or similar. Then Drive to the renowned 13th century Monastery of Debre Libanos established by St. Tekle Hayman. The interior of the church is decorated by stained-glass windows of various saints. There are historical antiquities in the museum of the church compound worth visiting. On the way to the monastery or on the way back, you might get the chance to see the Ghelada Baboons.

Also visit the nearby 16th century Portuguese bridge and enjoy the breathtaking scenery of Jimma River valley. Climb down below the bridge or cross the bridge and follow the cliff edge to your right for a view back to the waterfall and the Washa Chilada (Chilada Cave). Around the natural forest are a number of bird species including lammergeyer, auger buzzard, Abyssinian ground honbilie the endemic banded barbet, Abyssinian wood pecker, Ruppell's black chat and white-winged cliff-chat.

Late in the afternoon drive back to Addis Ababa. Transfer to your place of stay

End of service.
